Sheehy-Hayes.

To the strains of organ music the Sheehy-Hayes bridal party entered the Sacred Heart church at 10 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday and proceeding up the aisle were met at the altar by Rev. Father Cullinane who in the presence of a small assembly united Miss Minnie Sheehy and Will Hayes in the bonds of wedlock.

After the ceremony, high mass was read and immediately following the newly married couple and their attendants Miss Jennie Sheehy and George Hayes, left the church and drove directly to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sheehy, where a reception and wedding breakfast was given.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white point d'esprit over white organdy and carried a white covered prayer book. The bridesmaid wore a handsome dotted mull over pale blue and carried the bridal bouquet of roses.

At the home nearly one hundred guests showered congratulations upon the happy couple and all were soon seated at a sumptuous dinner served in courses.

The decorations were similar festooned from chandelier to the corners of the tables, and roses.

Many elegant and tasteful gifts were presented the bride which will adorn the new home which her husband has just completed near the Hayes homestead and which they will occupy as soon as they return from their wedding trip which takes in Chicago and Cairo, Ill., and probably St. Louis.

We extend the Expositor's best wishes with hoping that life may be bright and happy for them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes, daughters Mary and Ollie, Judge and Mrs. Tappan and children, Miss Reynolds, from Port Huron; the Misses Moran, Croley, Ella Sheehy, Mrs. J. D. Draper and little son, of Detroit, and Miss Stevenson of Stratford, Ont., attended the Sheehy-Hayes wedding.

Our Sentiments, Too.

Now that Yale and Brown City have gotten together, played ball with only slight friction, that Brown City was defeated and that Yale is allowed to feel real well after the game, that the home team was not crestfallen, but stand ready to play the return game at Yale's pleasure, resolved that there is no cause for any ill feeling between the two prosperous towns except what is caused by the selfish element which every small village has with them.—Brown City Banner

Delighted Congregation.

Rev. Thomas Durr, the newly appointed pastor of Washington Avenue M. E. church, occupied the pulpit for the first time Sunday morning and delighted a full congregation by his forcible address and perfect enunciation.

His sermon Sunday morning was along scriptural lines. After the sermon one of the members of the church said that in his opinion Rev. Durr was the best speaker that ever occupied the Washington M. E. pulpit. Mr. Durr will move to this city the latter part of the week.—Port Huron Weekly Herald. This is a tribute to our Rev. Durr which the people of Yale knew all about before but we are nevertheless glad to know that other congregations appreciate his high talent as well as his Yale people.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.

On Wednesday October 5th, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phillips celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. About thirty-five neighbors and friends dropped in on them in the afternoon with well filled baskets, and a jolly time was spent by all. Recollections of bygone years were rehearsed and a real social afternoon was had. Lyman Holcomb in a neat little speech in behalf of the company presented Mr. and Mrs. Phillips with a plush couch. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Newell gave them a half dozen silver knives and forks. These pleasant gatherings are what helps a person feel that this life is not an empty dream but one worth living.

In conclusion Mr. and Mrs. Phillips desire the Expositor to say for them that they are very thankful for the valuable presents and are happy that so many of their friends and neighbors helped them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Printed All At Home.

With this week, Oct. 7th, The Expositor starts an all home print which we expect will give us a great advantage over the ready prints. By the change we can control all of the advertising, it releases the contracted condition of the advertising space, gives more room for local, general and county news, and in fact every page of the paper will contain something of interest to our subscribers. The Blazed Trail, a story of lumbering in the northwest, starts this week. In addition to this interesting serial we publish a Sunday school column, Falmagne's sermon, fresh news of the state of Michigan, and of the United States, the markets, farm and dairy, the garden, political news, and much more of interest to the reader.

A correspondent in each of the nearby towns will be secured and weekly letters will be published from each locality. We hope to make The Expositor an ideal home paper and ask the co-operation of our friends in the work.

Hereafter we will not issue a 50 cent edition of the paper. The price will be $1.00 to everybody and we will strive to make the Expositor worth that amount and even more to each and everyone taking the paper.

Millinery Openings.

Although none of Yale's three milliners made the formal preparations for their fall openings as they make a point of doing in the spring, in the way of decorations, etc., still each place presented a fine appearance last week with the showing of fall and winter headgear. The hats, both large and small, are all very pretty and the variety of styles should suit every face. Blue, green and brown are effective shades and a touch of burnt orange gives the desired tone. Black hats do not take a back seat, but are as much sought after as ever. In children's wear one can find as pretty things here as in the city and also in infants' bonnets there is a nice line. Our milliners carry the best and latest of everything and the trimmers are fresh from the city styles.

At the Ross & Shields shop, Miss Ross is the trimmer and we all know that she is experienced and has the fine natural taste of an artist. At Eva J. Black & Co's Mrs. Black is her own trimmer, assisted by her sister, Miss Clark, and they have a most satisfactory way of suiting their customers.

Mrs. M. P. Brown has a Miss Lantz from Detroit as trimmer, who is sure to please as Mrs. Brown will have only the best.

Annual Supper.

The Annual Supper given by the Ladies of the Church of Christ, Tuesday evening proved a grand success, in view of the most inclement weather. A sumptuous feast was served to about two hundred and fifty people and each wished for more chicken pie, which was so delicious and wholesome as to go to a premium. We would suggest to the ladies to give a chicken pie supper to meet this demand. The candy stand of the C. E. Society was likewise liberally patronized. After expenses were paid about forty dollars was cleared. The ladies desire to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed.

Pleasantly Surprised.

Rev. A. E. Miller, pastor of the M. P. church of Yale, was happily surprised on his return from prayer-meeting at the Cole charge to find a house full of friends and neighbors. The company brought provisions with them and a hearty supper was enjoyed by all. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and before leaving they presented their pastor with a purse of $7.50. Such receptions are pleasant memories and show the esteem in which the community holds its pastor and fellow townsman.

Richmond 17, Yale 0.

The early risers on Saturday morning last saw a portion of Yale's "mighty eleven" preparing for their trip to the town to the south of us to play a return game of foot ball with the Richmond boys. The boys from here had a lame team but still had hopes of winning the game. Not at any stage of the game did Yale have a ghost of a show, but they put up a gamey fight and lost by a score of 17 to 0.

"Fine Dry Goods at Retail by Mail"

Shopping by Mail.

Any thing in the dry goods line may be ordered by mail and we guarantee just as much satisfaction this way, as though you came to the store and purchased your goods over the counter.

If your name is not on our mail order list, it should be—better see that it gets there right away. Your name on a postal is enough and we will send you free fashion sheets, catalogues, circulars, and any time you request it, we will send you an assortment of samples of anything that we have in the store, that is—anything that may be sampled. Just now we are pretty busy taking care of the new fall goods that are arriving daily, and if you haven't been in lately to see the new ready-to-wears, dress goods, silks, etc., why not make arrangements to make a special trip to just to look over the new things.
